Strikes Against Integration Spread In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A wave of student strikes in protest against integration of Negro and white pupils spread to nine Washington schools Tuesday while the situation in nearby Baltimore eased after several days of noisy demonstrations.

In the nation's capital school authorities reported more than 2,800 students absent at one time or another from three high schools and six junior highs.

At one time about 100 white boys and girls congregated in front of the Supreme Court building where the historic decision outlawing segregation in the public schools was handed down last May 17. The students left quickly under police orders.

Six persons were arrested near Anacostia High where several hundred pupils gathered outside with signs such as "This is America—not Africa." Two men were held on disorderly conduct charges and the others were released.

At day's end school authorities said a "back to classes" movement seemed to be developing. "I feel that the peak of the disturbance is past," Police Lt. William T. Murphy said at Anacostia high.

The Justice Department said it was "keeping an eye on the all-over situation." The District of Columbia started mixing white and Negro pupils three weeks ago without waiting for the Supreme Court's final order, expected some time next year.

At Council Bluffs, Iowa, Vice President Richard Nixon said his two daughters, Patricia, 8, and Julie, 6, would remain in Washington public schools regardless of integration.

The girls will "continue to grow up in an atmosphere where they are equals . . . we have attempted to provide equal opportunities for all citizens," he said.

The Nixon children attend Horace Mann School in Washington. No Negroes are enrolled there now.

At Baltimore the integration situation apparently was returning to normal following several days of student strikes, picketing and mass protests. Schools over the city reported attendance on the increase. A few pickets appeared at one or two schools but were quickly broken up by police.

At Washington, the CIO called on Atty. Gen. Brownell to "take firm and fast action" with federal civil rights laws to insure "peaceable integration of the public schools."

At Dover, Del., nine of 11 Negro pupils turned away last week from Milford's all-white high school failed to report at Dover's all-Negro school.

A school official who declined use of his name said he understood the nine were boycotting classes until they learned the result of a court argument next Tuesday on an injunction filed by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People to allow them to return to Milford.

Meanwhile, copies of a suit to dissolve the National Assn. for the Advancement of White People, one of the leaders in the recent successful fight to prevent integration at Milford, were on their way to the chancery in Georgetown, county seat of Kent County.

EDITORS HEAR BIDS OF CONGRESSMEN

CHICAGO (AP)—Rep. Brownson (R-Ind.) and Rep. Boggs (D-La.) ticked off for midwestern newspaper editors Tuesday reasons why each congressman thinks his party should win this year's national elections.

Members of the Inland Daily Press Assn. heard from Boggs that the GOP has demonstrated within its ranks a "tremendous division."

Bronson called it "a party of workmanlike constructive achievement."

The legislators held their usual debate at a luncheon session of Inland's 70th annual meeting.

'No Peep Show' On Salk Vaccine Tests

CHICAGO (AP)—A showdown report on whether the Salk vaccine is effective in preventing or mitigating polio won't be ready until around April 1, the director of a nationwide appraisal survey said Tuesday.

And in the meantime, said Dr. Thomas B. Francis Jr., of the University of Michigan, there will be "no peep show" reports based on any partial sampling of information gleaned from 217 counties in 44 states participating in the first field trials of the vaccine.

Dr. Francis heads a group of researchers making an independent appraisal of the effectiveness of a designedly antipolio vaccine.

It was developed by Dr. Jonas E. Salk of the University of Pittsburgh.

He said the United States Public Health Service first would have to with the support of the National Health Service first would have to rule whether or not the vaccine could be licensed for general use.

Also, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis would have to decide what measures to take, and vaccine manufacturers would have to be able to supply the material.

Some doctors at the meeting said that if the appraisal report were not forthcoming until April 1, and if it should prove favorable, there might not be time enough for manufacturers to make vaccine available for wide scale general use next spring and summer.

Interpreting The News

By J. M. ROBERTS
Associated Press News Analyst
The next thing you can look for, now that Italy and Yugoslavia have agreed on the division of the Trieste Territory, is a move to bring them into closer cooperation for mutual defense.

Italy is a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in which Yugoslavia does not wish to link herself officially with the capitalist countries from which she nevertheless gets military material.

Yugoslavia has a new defense alliance with Greece and Turkey, members of NATO. There has been much talk that if the Trieste matter once were straightened out, an effort would be made to get Italy into the Balkan Alliance also, since regional defense problems are common to all.

Italy and Yugoslavia will both use the port, which once served a large area of South Central Europe. They will have a mutual interest in its defense.

The United States already extends its military aid to Italy as a part of NATO, and to Yugoslavia in lesser degree on the promise of Marshal Tito that he will be "on the right side" if war comes to Europe. The United States is prepared to expand this aid to Tito if he will enter into a cooperative military arrangement with Italy.

The agreement has been pressed by the Allies as a part of a general effort this year to heal sore spots in the non-Communist world. The attitude of the United States toward it has been much the same as that toward the Anglo-Egyptian dispute about Suez. American diplomacy has played an important role in both settlements.

The Italians seem quite happy about the arrangement. The Yugoslavs are merely accepting something they could not prevent. But since they'll have to work together in the port, perhaps they can learn to do so in other fields also.

Kaiser Contracts To Make Trucks, Cars In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Henry J. Kaiser signed a contract early today to manufacture cars, trucks and jeeps in Argentina in partnership with President Juan D. Peron's government.

The U. S. industrialist will invest 10 million dollars worth of machinery, representing about one-third of the capital, in the new company. He will manage the manufacturing for the new company, to be owned by himself, the Argentine government and Argentine private investors.

The agreement culminated two months of negotiations.

For Kaiser, the deal permits him to manufacture automotive equipment in Argentina—starved for cars and trucks—and with machinery he owns in the United States. This machinery is useless to him there, where the auto market is over-supplied and the independents are being squeezed by Ford and General Motors.

For Peron, the agreement represents the first big industrial investment under his plan to attract foreign capital, make Argentina industrially self-sufficient and aid the nation's lagging economy. Kaiser's goal is to produce 40,000 units annually in Argentina. Although machinery now in the United States is to be used here, Kaiser's son Edgar said that did not mean operations would be discontinued at the Kaiser-Fraser plant in Toledo, Ohio.

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Miss Carrie Spencer, associate professor of physical education at MacMurray College, is one of seventy-five college and university professors from the entire country selected to develop standards and policies for the national program of required physical education for men and women in all colleges.

This week Miss Spencer is attending a three-day meeting in Washington, D. C., under the sponsorship of the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, in conjunction with the National Education Association, to set up the committee on standards for the college level group.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eleven men threw all their baggage into the ocean and even tossed out parts of the plane in helping a Navy patrol bomber limp on one of its two engines for half of the 2,400 miles from Honolulu.

The plane landed safely Monday at Half Moon Bay, south of here.

At that, the fliers heard the one good engine sputter 400 miles out when the Neptune was 1,000 feet above the Pacific. Only a quick adjustment of fuel mixture prevented a crash into the sea.

The port engine caught fire when the Neptune was 50 miles beyond the halfway "point of no return." The pilot, Lt. Robert E. Combs, 25, of Denver, feathered the engine and the wind blew out the fire.

Beta Sigma Phi
Chapters Enjoy Librarians Talk

Beta Sigma Phi chapters Gamma and Xi Alpha Upsilon met recently at the home of Mrs. Merle Wade on West Walnut street. Mrs. Thomas Wade served as assistant hostess.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Jerry Carlson, president of Gamma. Plans were completed for the rushing season which opens in October.

Announcement was made of an area council meeting being held in Pontiac, Illinois on October 3.

Mrs. Neil Simmons, program chairman, introduced Miss Frances Bailey from the Jacksonville Public Library. Miss Bailey spoke on "Getting the Most From Your Library." In a fascinating manner she presented some problems encountered in conducting a library. Miss Bailey also spoke of the needs of a library and what funds are available for meeting these needs. She showed some new books that are available at the library and pointed out some of the services that a library offers to a community.

Following this interesting program, the hostesses served refreshments.

The next regular meeting of the two chapters will be held on October 11, at the home of Miss Della Simmons in Murrayville.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mario Lanza in a private concert to calm the critics has shown all his old vocal power and promised that all future TV appearances will be live.

"I may even stick my finger down my throat during a couple of numbers to let the public know that there are no recordings," the tenor added Monday after singing arias from "I Pagliacci" and the inevitable "Be My Love" for assembled newsmen and women.

Why were two-year-old recordings dubbed in on his TV debut last Thursday? Because of all those medical tests, said Lanza, while he was taking off 40 pounds in six weeks.

"They dehydrated me," he said. "They lowered my blood sugar. And my doctor said he would not be responsible for how I would react."

Adenauer Receives
Ovation On Result
Of London Talks

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer got an ovation from Parliament today as he reviewed results of the London conference that are to make West Germany a free partner in the Western world's defenses.

West Germany obtains "the full power of a sovereign state over its internal and foreign activities" through the historic nine-power agreement signed Sunday, he said.

The 78-year-old chancellor said the Western Allies would retain special rights only with regard to a settlement with Russia over reunification of divided Germany, the security of Berlin and a final peace treaty.

The cars were ticketed because they were parked on the wrong side of a street past the church on which parking is limited to one side only.

Mayor William Keenan said he will ask the City Council to strike out the limitation on the church street.

Akers To Lead College Program Of Development

In a letter to the board of trustees, Dr. L. N. Norris, president of MacMurray College, announced the appointment of Milburn P. Akers as general chairman of the MacMurray College development program. Mr. Akers, a native of Jacksonville, is the executive editor of the Chicago Sun-Times, a position he has held since 1950. Mr. Akers started his journalistic career as a reporter on the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1923. Since then he has had increasingly responsible positions in the field of public information which include service with the Associated Press in the Chicago and Washington offices. He has been a trustee of MacMurray since 1944.

Mr. Akers' first act after accepting the leadership of the development program was to appoint Mrs. Sherwood Eddy of Jacksonville national chairman of Alumnae activities. Mrs. Eddy will coordinate and direct all alumnae activities insofar as they relate to the Development Program. Present plans call for a nation-wide program to enlist alumnae as active participants in the Alumnae Loyalty Fund.

YAM FLOURISHES DESPITE HEAT, SOIL

A Puerto Rican yam that hit 25 pounds despite gumbo ground and the season's hot, dry weather was raised this year by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaudoin, who live on the Frank Hembrough farm near Asbury church.

The tuber is smooth and well formed.

"I've seen larger sweet potatoes grown in sandy ground, but never before in the gumbo," Mrs. Chaudoin asserted.

She works at Passavant hospital and her husband is employed on the Hembrough farm.

Johnny Antonelli, Mike Garcia Capture Earned Run Titles

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
NEW YORK (AP)—Lefty Johnny Antonelli of the Giants and Mike Garcia, Cleveland's husky righthander, continued an interesting trend by winning the major league earned run titles in 1954.

Antonelli, with a 2.87 average, was the seventh southpaw in the past nine seasons to win earned run honors in the National League.

Late Model Stock Car Racing Sunday At Farmer City

FARMER CITY, Ill., Oct. 5—The late model stock cars will take the track at Farmer City Speedway Sunday afternoon, Oct. 10 to present another season championship, one of their fence smashing, end over end, thrill packed programs.

Twenty cars have been entered at present and many more are expected for this crowd pleasing event. The top drivers of the area have entered their cars and it should prove to be another fine afternoon of thrills.

Hard driving Johnny Meyers of Springfield will be on hand with his car. Other favorites will be Ted Schmidt of Champaign, Jim Moughan, Jim McKay and Pete Squires of Springfield and that popular Rosy Roseman of Clinton in his 1952 Chev.

Time trials will begin promptly at 1:30 p.m. with the first of four heat races starting at 2:30 p.m. These will be followed by a trophy dash and then the feature of the day, a 75 lap main event on the fast half mile track, making a total of 7 big events.

This is the same type held that pleased the crowd so much last month when it was held at the Urbana Speedway. Many of the drivers have new cars for the event and are eagerly awaiting the rapidly approaching date.

Those interested in entering a car may do so by contacting Mr. Kenny Martin, 301 S. Cottage Grove, Urbana, Ill. or by phoning him at 7-5342. All cars entered must be 1949 or later stock models with safety belts.

In case of rain, the race will be postponed until the following Sunday, Oct. 17.

Charlie Powell Faces Big Test In Tonight's Tv Bout

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Charlie Powell, the former professional football player who has the heavyweight division buzzing after twelve fights, faces his first really stiff test here Wednesday night in a scheduled ten-rounder with Charley Norkus of Port Washington, N. Y.

The battle will be nationally televised (9 p.m. CST). It will be Powell's initial showing before a countrywide screen audience.

Powell, a 22-year-old six foot three inch belter, started as a defensive end for the San Francisco 49ers before trading football gear for boxing gloves. He is expected to weigh 212 pounds for this bout.

The former all around high school athlete of San Diego is being talked up as a challenger to Champion Rocky Marciano after a dozen fights. Veteran ringiders are reserving judgment until they see Powell tagged on the chin with some heavy punches.

Norkus, the most experienced opponent Powell has come up against, throws a powerful right. He's scored 14 knockouts in 36 fights.

"I've spoiled some other guys who were regarded as up and coming geniuses," Norkus said, "and I intend to do the same thing with this upstart."

Powell never fought as an amateur. He was held to a draw in his first match, broke his hand and was laid off for a year. He returned to action last February and has won eleven straight, the last ten by kavos. He has had to fight only 33 rounds since he started.

It will pair off a couple of wild swingers. Norkus has won eight of his last nine, his latest victim being Cesar Brion of the Argentine.

Among opponents, Powell stopped bulky Frank Buford in two rounds. The latter had gone nine with Ezzard Charles. Last month, Powell knocked out Keene Simmons in six. Simmons had served as sparring partner for Marciano.

The champion will be among the interested spectators Wednesday night. So will be his manager, Al Weil. Suey Welch, Powell's manager, has told Weil that Marciano and Powell would draw a million dollar gate in the Los Angeles Coliseum next summer if Powell continues his winning ways.

Marciano, incidentally, will serve as a referee in one of Wednesday's preliminaries.

It might be interesting to note the Jacksonville Crimson's lost the game in which they picked up the greatest number of yards via the rushing route. The Crimson backs gained 265 yards on the ground against Macomb yet they came out on the short end of a 15-7 score.

The recent southpaw trend in the National League, started with Howie Pollet, then of the St. Louis Cardinals, capturing the crown in 1946. He was followed by Warren Spahn of the then Boston Braves in '47, Harry (The Cat) Brecheen of the Cards in '48 and Dave Koslo of the Giants in '49.

Jim Hearn, a righthander performing for both the Cards and Giants, broke the spell in 1950, but southpaw Chet Nichols of the Braves topped the listings in '51. Another righthander, Hoyt Wilhelm of the Giants, was the '52 pace-setter.

At 19, Dawson is one of 11 children of an Alliance, Ohio, pottery plant worker, who's just an unheralded sophomore quarterback until Purdue's opening game against Missouri.

Now he's possessor of a two-game passing record of 18 completions in 29 attempts for eight touchdowns. He modestly tries to give the credit to the whole Purdue team, but his coach, Stu Holcomb, says Lenny "has everything."

Five of Lenny's six brothers were on hand to see him operate against Notre Dame, certain he'd give them something to cheer about. He did.

Dawson merely completed seven of 12 passes for 185 yards, made four of them good for touchdowns, intercepted one pass and kicked three of four conversions for a 27-14 victory. He also pitched four touchdown passes against Missouri.

At 19, Dawson still looks like a lanky kid. He's 6 feet tall, weighs 178 pounds. But he's married and the father of a baby daughter, Lisa Anne.

Lenny does most of his passing on a dead run from the tricky pass patterns concocted by Holcomb and he claims these patterns and his receivers are responsible for his success. But in his senior year in high school he connected on 100 of 200 passes tossing for 19 touchdowns.

He was captain of his team, all-state quarterback in Ohio and also captained the basketball and baseball teams.

Moegle, the fleet Rich halfback who gained fame of a sort last New Year's day when Alabama's Tommy Lewis bounced off the bench to tackle him during the Sugar Bowl game, got his nomination strictly on his own merits Saturday.

Playing less than half the game against Cornell, Dickey scored four touchdowns on runs of 18, 40, 10 and 78 yards. He gained 168 yards by rushing, caught two passes for 18 and returned two punts for 30.

Cassady, Ohio State's 20-year-old, 168-pound halfback, out-gained the whole California team, 104 yards to 101, on the ground, caught four passes for 50 yards and intercepted a pass.

Said California Coach Lynn Waldford: "He might just be the best back in the country."

RYE PRICES BREAK, WHEAT ALSO WEAK

By WILLIAM FERRIS

CHICAGO (P)—Rye prices broke sharply on the Board of Trade Tuesday on news West Germany had again postponed her scheduled buying of that grain. Wheat also was quite weak, with some of the selling apparently inspired by the drop in rye.

In contrast, soybeans continued to move ahead as receipts of cash beans again were very light and northern and central Illinois, where some soybeans have not been harvested, got more rain. Oats and corn firmed early but lost all their gains by the close.

Wheat closed 1½¢ lower, corn 1½¢ lower, oats unchanged to 1½¢ lower, rye 6½¢ lower, soybeans 3½¢ higher and hard 3 cents lower to 2 cents a hundred pounds higher.

In addition to the rain, which delayed harvesting and consequently left the market without much hedging pressure, soybeans were aided by a mildly bullish crop forecast from C. M. Galvin of Francis I du Pont & Co. Galvin estimated the crop at 332 million bushels.

While this would be the largest crop on record, many traders had expected an estimate of around 340 to 345 million bushels. A month ago Galvin estimated 336 million bushels and the government 325 million.

West Germany postponed her buying because, it was said, the price was "too high." This was the second such postponement. Rye fell even more at Winnipeg than at Chicago—5½¢ to 8½ cents.

For some months, the market has been attaining new 25-year highs, and a week ago Friday it touched a new peak. Thereafter it declined moderately. For the last three sessions the market advanced to the new high mark of Tuesday.

Gains were extensive in many instances—going to around 5 points at the best. Losses also were large in some cases and went to around 3 points at the worst.

Oils and steels had an early lead in the rise. Profit-taking later made inroads in the oil group and also reduced steel gains. Other sections of the list also suffered, but most key divisions were ahead at the close. The motors and electrical equipments were a sagging exception.

Here are some of the larger gains and closing prices:

Homestead Mining up 5½¢ at 51½, Lee Rubber up 2½¢ at 73 and Rohr aircraft up 2½¢ at 28½. Bendix Aviation up 2½¢ at 97.

The American Stock Exchange was mostly higher on 350,000 shares. That compares with 710,000 shares traded Monday.

Douglas Blasts GOP 'Giveaways,' Declares Food Surpluses Asset

Senator Paul H. Douglas last night loosed a verbal blast at Republican "giveaway programs," "unfair" tax cuts and policies toward farmers, wage earners and small businessmen as he addressed a near capacity crowd of over 700 at a Democratic rally in the Jacksonville High School auditorium.

"In the 21 months the George Douglas said, "it has embarked on a gigantic giveaway program."

It has, he said, given away offshore oil fields, which once belonged to the entire nation, to four coastal states—against the desires of the Democrats, who wanted to "use funds gained from the oil fields for education."

Douglas has introduced a bill to repeal this act. Because of this, he charged, large sums of money from Texas oilmen will be brought into Illinois to fight him.

Second, he declared, the Republicans have "tried to give away atomic energy."

"They wanted to give big corporations the right to patent atomic energy developments which have been paid for with your tax money."

Douglas stated he favored free enterprise in the development of atomic energy, but said, "I want it to be competitive—I want all firms to have a chance to use the devices which your tax dollars have developed."

Tax "Giveaway"

The third major item in the "giveaway" program, he contended, is the tax overhaul bill passed just before Congress adjourned.

He said that 1/2 of the tax cuts provided by the bill went to the average family, while 1/2 affected corporations and corporation stockholders.

"There are only 6 million families 1-10 of America's families—who own corporate stock," he pointed out, "and one per cent of the people own 80 per cent of the stock."

"The working man," he charged, "pays a higher tax rate than the man whose income comes from stock dividends."

He said that if re-elected he would fight for repeal of this measure and substitution of the Democratic proposal—an increase in the individual tax exemption from $600 to $800 per person, which he said would save the average family $160 per year.

Emily Taft Douglas Guest Of Honor At Democratic Tea

"In some campaigns the issues are confused, and the only difference between candidates is a party label," Emily Taft Douglas, wife of U. S. Senator Paul Douglas, candidate for reelection, told guests at a tea given in her honor by the Morgan County Democratic Committee women and the Democratic Women's Club at the Dunlap Hotel yesterday afternoon.

"At other times the issues stand out sharp and clear as a skyscraper which everyone can and should see. Less partial witnesses than I say this is the case today. They say the fight is between special interests and the people. They say the choice is between a proved public servant and a professional lobbyist."

More In '32

Mrs. Douglas pointed out that voting communists in this country decreased from 103,000 in 1932 to 24,000 in 1952, citing as the reason for the decrease the improvement in the economic health of the nation during those "20 years of reason," rather than "20 years of reason," as Senator McCarthy has labeled the 20-year Democratic administration.

The other 80,000, as well as the dangerous host of fellow travelers, had deserted," she continued. "What is more, the leadership of this international conspiracy, the top flight and bewildered by surpluses. They snipe at the problem around the edges, fearful of effective effort."

"To get rid of dried milk surpluses, they buy it up for nearly 17 cents a pound and sell it to mix with livestock feed for 3 cents a pound. Thus, they take the milk out of the cow, then put it back again. And taxpayers foot the bill."

You're Getting Milked

The cow is not the only one getting milked. "I would rather see the milk in a hungry man than a contented cow."

He outlined Democratic policies which have supported Social Security, the right of workers to organize and "fought unfair competition" between big and little business.

"Our record is in your hands; the decision is in your hands; and the issue is in your hands," he concluded.

David F. Mallet, candidate for state treasurer, and Mark A. Peterman, state superintendent of public instruction, hopeful, preceded Douglas on the program.

"The American people," Mallet said, "are sick and tired of being promised a chicken in every pot, and winding up without even a pot."

He expounded his belief that a good safeguard with a Republican administration in power.

Payrolls, Taxes Up

Mallet blasted Republican statements, then continued, "Speaking of their idle chatter, state payrolls have increased under this administration, and the per capita tax rate is the highest in history."

Peterman emphasized that the purpose of schools is to "develop a hunger for learning."

The state must provide, he continued, "every child with adequate educational opportunities, every teacher with a living."

Rows of chairs on the auditorium stage were filled with Illinois Democratic party officials, and the party's local candidates were introduced before the principal speakers took the floor.

Virgil Wegehoff, chairman of the Morgan County Democratic Central Committee, presided over the program.

Health Officer Describes Cause Of Epidemic

The recent brief but unpleasant malady which struck down a large number of young people in the Jacksonville and adjacent areas was an acute infection of the lower intestinal tract, Dr. James W. Chapman, Morgan county health officer, said Tuesday.

He explained that it was caused in a number of instances and probably in all, by bacteria known as Shigella sonnei. Laboratory tests were made in a number of instances and in all the same organism was found.

"This disease occurs usually in warm weather and the attack rates in younger age groups is often ten times that in older age groups which was the case here, of course," Dr. Chapman said. "Another important factor in the rapid spread of the disease is the fact that for every ill person there is usually eight or ten carriers who harbor the infecting organism but have no symptoms."

"In this epidemic no common medium of spread can be determined upon since it appeared in fairly widely separated areas in the county. The vastly increased fly population may have been a factor."

"In any case and whatever the medium of spread, the importance of hand washing, especially before meals by all individuals but particularly young people should be stressed constantly by parents, teachers and all persons who have the responsibility of guiding children in their everyday lives."

Creative Dancing For Children To Be Taught Here

Youngsters in two age groups are to be included in creative dance courses to start October 9 at MacMurray College taught by Mrs. Louise Bruyn, former teacher at the Lafayette school and local dance instructor.

Any boy or girl in the community is welcome to enroll in the course which promotes grace and poise and encourages self expression in the dance. No particular costume is necessary for the lessons and children dance in their bare feet.

The two age groups are six and seven years and eight through twelve years. Both groups will be instructed at the College on Saturday mornings.

Mrs. Bruyn successfully taught a similar course at the College two years ago. Before moving to Jacksonville three years ago she taught creative dancing in Urbana and while a resident of Chicago studied with dance instructor Anne Rudolph. She is a graduate of the University of Illinois and is the wife of Severyn Bruyn, faculty member at Illinois College where Mrs. Bruyn is acting dean of women.

"Food surpluses," he continued, "should be used as an asset instead of a liability."

"First of all," he said, "part of the so-called surplus is actually a reserve which serves as protection against emergency needs."
